

Soft Landings

Curated by Betty Musgrove
30 May - 19 July 2024

Textiles surround us, comfort us, allow us expression of identity.

As Kassia St Clair states in her book The Golden Thread "We live surrounded by cloth. We are swaddled in it at birth and shrouds are drawn over our faces in death. We sleep enclosed by layer upon layer of it...and, when we wake, we clothe ourselves in yet more of it to face the world and let it know who we shall be that day."

Often delegated to the realm of 'craft', textiles can be an underappreciated and overlooked artform. The artists of Soft Landings, however, evident the extensive capacity of textiles – using the medium as a raw expression and interpretation of the world, confirming textiles' place in contemporary art. Subjects such as body, home, identity, desire, and more are explored through embroidery, 2D mixed media textiles, and soft sculpture.

Featuring the works of Bronwyn Hack, Chris O'Brien, Mark Smith, Joanne Nethercote, Rosie O'Brien, Adrian Lazzaro, Lisa Reid, Matthew Gove, Terry Williams, Anne Lynch, Fulli Andrinopoulos and Paul Hodges.

Arts Project Australia respectfully acknowledges the Wurundjeri people of the Kulin Nation, the traditional custodians of the land on which we meet, exhibit and create art.
